Berlin, February 27. N. S. On the 24th, the King return'd from Potſdam to this Place, and to Morrow he intends to ſet out for Oranienbourg. Some Days ago Count Dhona was ſent with a Commiſſion from hence to the Emperor. Monſieur d'Erlach has been confirm'd in his Employment of Mareſchal of the Court, which he enjoy'd in the late King's Reign. His Majeſty has conſtituted ſeveral new Chamberlains, with a Yearly Salary of One thouſand Dollars, and has likewiſe nam'd Twenty Gentlemen of the Privy Chamber. Monſieur Latorff is appointed to go Envoy to the Circle of Lower Saxony, and intends to ſet out ſoon for Hamburgh, where he is to reſide. The Marquis de Honsbrook is made Chancellor of the Principality of Gueldres. It having been repreſented to his Majeſty, that Several of the Young Nobility and Gentry of his Dominions ſpend a great part of their Incomes in foreign Countries, he has publiſh'd an Edict, forbiding all his Subjects from travelling beyond the Limits of the Empire without his Special Permiſſion. The Margraves of Bareith and Anſpach were invited to this Court, but excus'd themſelves from coming upon account, that their Preſence was neceſſary at home to provide for the Security of their Countries, which they apprehended might be in danger of an Invaſion, ſince the Conferences were broke off at Radſtad. It is thought the King deſired them to come hither, in order to ſettle the Succeſſion of Bareith, which was reſign'd to the late King of Pruſſia, by the Princes of Culmbach, who are next Heirs to the Margrave. It is ſaid his Majeſty intends to take ſome Regiments of Holſtein Gottorp into his Pay, and that they are to ſerve upon the Rhine, as part of his Contingent. A few Days ago the Paſſage-boat going from hence to Franckfort upon the Oder, was caſt away by a Storm, and the Paſſengers, to the number of Forty, were all drown'd.

Hamburgh, March 2. N. S. The number of Perſons that died here laſt Week amounts to no more than Sixty nine. We have received an Account, that on the 7th paſt Monſieur de Lowener, Aid de Camp of his Daniſh Majeſty, deſired a Conference with the Governor of Tonningen, in which he acquainted him, that Seven thouſand Men were ready to Attack the Fortreſs that Night on all Sides; but nevertheleſs, if he would Capitulate, he ſhould have honourable Conditions. Upon which a Council of War was call'd, and it was reſolved to ſurrender the Place, which was reduced to great Extremity for want of Proviſions. On the 10th the Garriſon, conſiſting of Eight or Nine hundred Men, march'd out with the uſual Marks of Honour, with two Cannons and two Mortars, and was Conducted to Eutin. It is thought the King of Denmark will order the Fortifications to be Demoliſh'd as ſoon as the Seaſon will permit. The Preparations for fitting out the Daniſh Fleet are continued with great Diligence, and the Czar has engag'd to bear half the Expence of ſubſiſting the Seamen, upon Condition that the Admiral be directed to obey his Orders. The King of Pruſſia has ſent Count Dhona to Vienna, to receive Inveſtiture in his Name of the Fiefs his Majeſty holds in the Empire. The Duke of Mecklenbourg has ratify'd and confirm'd the Treaty of Succeſſion concluded between the King of Pruſſia and the late Duke his Brother, and his Majeſty, in return, has obliged himſelf to protect the Dominions of that Prince againſt all Violences, as well of the Swedes, as of the Confederates. The Emperor has ſent Orders to the King of Sicily's Miniſter at the Diet of Ausbourg, to leave that Place in two Days, and to depart out of the Territories of the Empire within a Week. They write from Petersbourg, that the Council of War, appointed to examine into the Conduct of Vice-Admiral Cruys in his laſt Expedition at Sea, had condemn'd him to die, together with Monſieur Rees, Commander of a Man of War, but the Czar had chang'd their Sentence, and ſent them into Baniſhment to Tobolſko in Siberia. Monſieur Schultz, Governor of Wiſmar, has received Orders from the King of Sweden his Maſter, not to enter into any Conference upon the Subject of Sequeſtring that City, and to receive no Foreign Troops into the Garriſon, but to defend the Place to the utmoſt Extremity in caſe he ſhould be attack'd. For which reaſon, as he is not furniſh'd at preſent with a ſufficient Quantity of Proviſions to maintain a long Siege, he has ſent to the Nobility of Mecklenbourg to ſupply him for Six Months, upon pain of Military Execution.

Hague, March 6. N. S. On the 17th paſt, the Earl of Strafford arrived here from Bruſſels, and the ſame Evening he celebrated Her Majeſty's Birth-day with a magnificent Ball, at which the foreign Miniſters, and moſt of the principal Perſons of this Republick, were preſent. On the 23d, the Ratifications of the Treaties of Peace and Commerce between Great Britain and Spain, were exchang'd at his Excellency's Houſe. On the 27th Mr. Harley landed at Rotterdam, and came in the Evening to this Place. In a few Days he intends to purſue his Journy to Hanover. The Spaniſh Miniſters have receiv'd an Expreſs from their Court with an account, that the Queen of Spain died on the 14th of laſt Month. Some Days ago Monſieur Roſenkrantz, Miniſter of Denmark, arrived here from England in one of Her Majeſty's Yatchts. On the 1ſt Inſtant, the Earl of Strafford was in Conference
